Kentucky College for Women, with all of its appointments for the personal comforts of those present, its spacious assembly rooms, gymnasium, swimming pool, tennis and basket ball courts and its beautiful wooded campus, is an ideal place for such a conference, and the people of Danville, accustomed to entertaining all kinds of conventions, are extending unusual hospitality to this one.

"The members of the committee in charge, composed of Rev. T. S. Smylie, chairman, Mrs. Best, Mrs. Cochran and Rev. Sydney Venable, have been untiring in their work, and have secured many of the greatest lights of the Presbyterian church in the United States for the lectures and classes in Sunday School. Christian Endeavor and Mission Work, among whom are, Dr. J. M. Caldwell, of Atlanta, Ga.; Dr. W. H. Hopper, of Louisville; Rev. J. Hershey Longnecker, of Congo Belge, Africa; Miss Elizabeth McE. Winsborough, of St. Louis; Dr. J. L. Mavze, of Huntington; Mrs. H. L. Cochran, of Kentucky, and Dr. Gilbert Glass, of Richmond, Va.

"Some of the enjoyable features of the convention are the athletic events in charge of Rev. W. A. Hopkins, and the music, directed by Mr. Thos. C. Bryan, with Miss Elizabeth Crutcher, of Paris, pianist, and several delegates forming a splendid orchestra."

The floor area of St. Peter's in Rome is 227,069 feet, being the greatest of any in the world.

THE BOURBON GUN CLUB

The Bourbon Gun Club held their regular shoot Friday afternoon, June 10. We had two hard showers of rain which kept some of the boys away, but at that twenty-eight shooters came out and we shot sixteen full quads. The trophy, a silk umbrella, donated by Shiro & Fithian, was won by Dr. W. J. Kiff, after nine had tied up for the first shoot-off. Next Friday afternoon, June 17, will be a special shoot at 500 targets between the Cane Ridge team, with J. M. Caldwell as captain, and the Sure Hits, with Amos Turney as captain. All club members and visiting shooters are expected to come and take part in this shoot. The team race will start promptly at 1:30 and just as soon as finished all others will take part and shoot the rest of the afternoon.

COUNCIL ACCEPTS BOND

At a recent meeting of the City Council bond furnished by the Henry Bickel Company, of Louisville, for $11,087.20, taken on the Globe Indemnity Co., to cover the construction of sewers to be built in Paris, was accepted. Work on the projected sewer system will begin soon, most of the equipment and material being here or on the way.

COMMERCIAL CLUB NOTES

Following requests made by a number of merchants, William E. Hacker, Secretary of the Paris Commercial Club, will circulate an agreement among the merchants in practically all lines of business to the effect that, out of respect to the National holidays, they will close their places of business on the afternoons and evenings of the Fourth of July, Thanksgiving, Christmas, and Decoration Day. The merchants have not had any definite agreement as to dates of closing and the paper to be circulated, if signed by all, will be a standing and permanent agreement.

Rudolph Davis, general chairman of the Booster Trip to be held in the next few weeks, is lining up several working committees, and expects to make the trip one of the most successful features attempted by the Commercial Club. Mr. Davis is not overlooking the fun element and assures everyone who goes on the trip that he'll have one of the big times of his life.

H. B. Griest, of the educational department of the National Retail Clothiers Association, recently conferred with several groups of merchants in regard to holding a five-day Merchants' Institute, during which lectures by experts and round-table discussions would be held. The institute would have been available for this month, but most of the merchants favored postponing it until next fall or winter.

The Commercial Club has before it some questions regarding aid for disabled veterans, constructive measures for other veterans, and opposition to the cash bonus for soldiers. These questions have been placed before it by the Chamber of Commerce of the United States, in accordance with resolutions adopted by the National Chamber at its annual meeting, composed of delegates from member organizations, of which the local organization is one. The National Chamber takes the stand that measures granting adequate relief for disabled veterans, enabling service men to cultivate the soil, build homes or obtain vocational training, are preferable to the bonus plan.

The directors of the Commercial Club are anxious that all persons who subscribed to the Bourbon County Memorial Fund, and who have not expressed their views as to the kind of material that should be constructed, respond immediately. Referendum blanks were mailed out to the subscribers some weeks ago, but many did not fill them in. After a representative vote has been received, the results will be turned over to the original committee designated to act on the matter. Subscribers can express their views on the referendum blanks or else by personal letter to the secretary of the Commercial Club.

Paris will be host to the next meeting of the Licking Valley and Bluegrass Highway Association, and the date will be set in the next few days. The highway runs from Paris to Cincinnati, by way of Cynthiana, Falmouth, Independence and Covington, and this route will have, it is believed, practically all travel north and south through this section of the country.

Several of the local merchants and clerks have asked William E. Hacker, Secretary of the Commercial Club, to enroll a class for the study of retail salesmanship and advertising. Mr. Hacker has received considerable material preparatory to presenting the course, which would consist of ten lessons. He says he will undertake the class, with the assistance of local merchants, who will take turns at delivering talks and conducting the instruction, if as many as fifty persons will enroll.

FORMER PARISIAN SAFE

Mrs. Hensel Margolen, of Paris, received a telegram from the Red Cross Society headquarters, at Pueblo, Col., stating her sister, Mrs. Frank Trumbo, who now resides there had escaped injury in the big flood, which devastated that city recently. Mrs. Trumbo was formerly Miss Ida Phillips.

COMMUNITY SERVICE SPECIALIST HERE TO HELP.

Miss Sophie B. Fishback, the recreation specialist representing Community Service, Inc., of New York, has just arrived in Paris to help the local Community Service in developing their work. Miss Fishback has had a large and varied experience in all forms of recreation work in the East and more recently in several Kentucky cities. Final plans for the opening of the Recreation Institute have been made and the first meeting will be held at the High School Gymnasium on Monday night, June 13, at 7:30, and will last until 9:30.

The purpose of the Institute is to bring out the ladies of the community and train them for Community leadership in games, story telling, play-ground work, and other features, that will make them valuable to their communities, churches, organizations and in their homes.

Miss Fishback is here for three weeks only, and for this reason the training will have to be intensive. In order to cover the course, there will be three nights a week, for two weeks, Monday, Thursday and Friday. All the meetings will be held at the High School. Miss Fishback will also do some work with the teachers, who are here attending the summer school.

There is no fee for the course, but it is hoped that the people who come will be there as many times as possible, as we take up a different one each night. The games to be taught are for all ages, from the little tots up, and for adults.

At the close of the Institute a Recreation Club will be formed, the officers being chosen from those who have taken the course. This club is the group which will carry on the work, after we leave, and the program will go on in the playgrounds through the summer, and in the fall will work up the city wide interest, and have Community meetings of every sort. For instance, if a church or any organization or club wishes for a social evening, the Community Service office should be called up, and the secretary in charge be told that a certain group wants a play leader, a story teller, and a song leader. The president of the Recreation Club is notified, and she will see that the call is covered. The movement is to promote Community spirit, and the leaders will understand the movement more fully after Monday night, at which time the whole movement will be explained in full.

Each night there will be short talks, on different community subjects, by the local people of Paris. In the six lessons nearly fifty games will be taught without equipment, showing how the little people may be made happy with little or no expense. This class is for adults, and no one under seventeen years of age may enroll.

This class is for all those who are interested enough to enter in, and make the class a success. Community Service is here at your invitation, and it is our object to serve you in any way we can. It is your movement, and we are only here to help. So rally around, and let us be able to say that Paris is the leading town in Kentucky, in the big movement called Community Service.

"OLD MELODIES" CONCERT TO BE GIVEN.

Reports from over the State show that Bourbon County responded admirably to the Old Kentucky Home campaign and, although reports received to date show that the county is not far from its quota, the chairman, E. H. Gorey and J. M. Caldwell, desire to send in the full amount of $1,000. In order to complete the quota, an old melodies concert is being arranged and will be held in the near future. Mrs. M. H. Dailey is chairman of a committee to arrange for the concert, which will feature the songs of Stephen C. Foster, who wrote, "My Old Kentucky Home." This concert, from present indications, will be one of the most enjoyable occasions for music lovers ever arranged in this city.

THE NEWS, in common with many other papers, has been endeavoring to impress upon advertisers and others the necessity of getting their copy and news items to this office promptly. Some of our advertisers seem to think there is no such thing as a system. The Somerset closing forms in The Commonwealth Office hereafter will be each Wednesday at 11 a. m. Anyone having news items or advertising on this paper will please be governed accordingly. No advertising or news notes will be accepted after 11 o'clock each Wednesday morning. It is the desire of The Commonwealth to serve this community the very best possible and it can best be done by having a system and sticking to it."

BODY OF LUTHER SHANKS GIVEN MILITARY FUNERAL

Full military honors to a dead soldier were paid Sunday afternoon, at the Paris Methodist church, when the body of Private Luther Shanks, world-war victim, in a casket carried by former service men, was placed in front of the pulpit. A feeling and eloquent tribute to the young man who had made the supreme sacrifice, was paid by Rev. O. B. Crockett, of Winchester, a former pastor of the church. A solemn and special musical program was rendered by the choir.

At the conclusion of the service the body was taken in charge by a detachment of the Bourbon Post, American Legion, and the funeral cortege proceeded to the Paris Cemetery, where committal services were held by the American Legion. At the grave full military honors, firing a salute and sounding of "taps" by a bugler stationed at the head of the grave, were given and the body was laid to rest under a mound covered with a wealth of floral tributes, silently attesting the esteem in which he was held. A large crowd stood in reverent attitude, with bowed heads, while the body of the young soldier was being consigned to the earth.

Mr. and Mrs. James L. Shanks, and daughter, Miss Shadie Shanks, of Marion, Indiana, parents and sister of the deceased, were present at the ceremonies and returned to their home after a short visit to Mr. and Mrs. Robert Lantern, on the Peacock pike, near Paris.

RECREATION SPECIALIST INITIATES INTERESTING GAMES

Miss Sophie Fishback, the recreation specialist, who began her work last night at the City High School, put on many interesting games. The games were preceded by talks by local people. Dr. M. H. Dailey, president of the local Community Service Committee, opened the meeting with a short address, in which he introduced Miss Fishback to those taking the classes. F. E. Allemon followed with a short explanation of Community Service and its meaning to a community. Miss Reba Lockhart gave an interesting talk on the value of story-telling as a means of recreation for the younger children. Miss Lockhart also told a story to illustrate what could be done in this line. Miss Fishback then gave a brief explanation of the purpose of her course. She emphasized the fact that the primary purpose of the course was to develop local people who could lead in all forms of recreation throughout the entire year.

Monday afternoon Miss Fishback began her classes with the Summer Normal School teachers, now in session at the High School. This is a separate class from the evening class. It is meant to reach many of the teachers who could not be at the classes in the evening. This work will be of great value to these teachers, as they go back to their schools, in helping them direct their pupils both in the school and in the playground.

REPUBLICAN COMMITTEE MEETS

At a meeting of the Bourbon County Republican Committee Saturday afternoon a report was received from the committee appointed to interview the prominent Republicans of the county with a view to placing a Republican county ticket in the field for the November election. Chairman W. A. Thomason reported progress being made, but that the ticket was not yet completed, and would be given out in a few days. He expressed confidence that the party would place a full ticket in the field to contest with the Democratic aspirants. The matter of placing a city ticket was not acted upon.

BOURBON FISCAL COURT

At a recent meeting of the Bourbon Fiscal Court the sum of $28,913.27, was ordered paid to the Bourbon County Road Commission for expenses incurred to be paid out of the Turnpike Fund. In anticipation of the county revenue for 1921 County Judge Batterton was authorized to borrow $6,000 with interest at the rate of seven per cent. per annum. The Woman's Club of Bourbon County was given the free use of the vacant room in the court house until further notice.

"FLAG DAY" TO BE OBSERVED TO-DAY.

In accordance with proclamations issued by the President and supplemented by one issued by Governor Morrow, to-day, Tuesday, June 14, has been designated officially as "Flag Day," when all patriotic citizens are requested to display the American flag on their business houses and residences.

Mrs. C. M. Clay, Regent of the Jemima Johnson Chapter, D. A. R., has issued a request to every member of that organization to observe the day in the proper spirit and to encourage and urge others to do so. This is part of the Nation's "one hundred per cent. Americanism" plan.

Postmaster J. Walter Payne yesterday received the following worded official circular from the Postoffice Department at Washington:

"Every department of the Administration and every employee of the Government has caught the spirit of the Chief Executive, whose words and deeds are the constant fulfillment of the lofty ideal we call Americanism.

"I very earnestly request that you will observe the purposes of Flag Day on June 14, by the appropriate display of the flag and by all other means which you may deem possible."

"WILL S. HAYS,
Postmaster General."

SOMETHING TO REMEMBER

When a stranger comes to Paris he looks around. It is the natural thing to do. His opinions are formed from what he sees and hears, and from nothing else. As he finds conditions to exist, so he repeats them when he goes elsewhere, and repeats them to other people. That is what makes our reputation abroad and it is worth remembering.
